

Delivering the Armed Forces Covenant in Oxfordshire

Oxfordshire Local Authorities were the first in the UK to sign the Armed Forces Covenant. These authorities and many organisations in Oxfordshire including SSAFA and The Royal British Legion, are committed to offering the best possible support to the Armed Forces Family – serving personnel, veterans and their families – across Oxfordshire.

The Armed Forces Covenant sets out the relationship between the Nation, the Government and the Armed Forces. It recognises that the whole nation has a moral obligation to members of the Armed Forces Family, and it establishes how they should be treated.

Organisations signing up to the Covenant provide a voluntary pledge of mutual support between their organisation and the Armed Forces Family.
